I recommend you approve the attached request for annual premium pay for administratively uncontrollable overtime (AUO) for the polygraph officer

Current Agency regulations authorize AUO to be paid in lieu of hourly overtime when there are continuing requirements for significant amounts of overtime work which is administratively uncontrollable, i.e., the employee is required to recognize the need for overtime and dictates of the job do not allow prior scheduling or approval. A premium pay rate of 10 percent is currently authorized based on average overtime hours worked each week

of at least three but not more than five hours. OS has indicated they will continually monitor the overtime hours to ensure that the requirement is met.
